

Where's Lily's Pink Bucket?

A little story to read together

Six illustrated moments, with a gentle discovery along the way. A grown-up can read the words while little readers explore the pictures.

Story adaptation • 4 pages • Free for family, classroom and library use. Not for resale.

WHERE'S LILY'S PINK BUCKET?

01

A little mystery

Lily wanted to help in the garden. But her pink bucket was missing.

Lily: Where did I put it?

02

Happy has a clue

Happy found a bucket by the fence. Lily looked carefully. This bucket was blue!

Lily: Good looking, Happy. We need the pink one.

WHERE'S LILY'S PINK BUCKET?

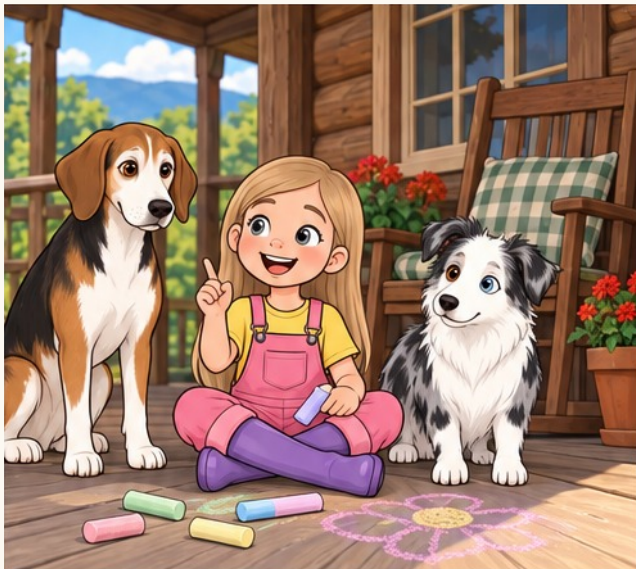

03

A different shape

Near the garden bench was something yellow with a long spout. It was a watering can.

Dad: Useful for our flowers, but it isn't your bucket.

04

Stop and remember

Lily remembered drawing on the porch. She had carried her chalk in the pink bucket.

Lily: Let's look on the porch!

WHERE'S LILY'S PINK BUCKET?

05

A peek of pink

Dolly noticed the pink handle behind a cushion. There was the bucket, with Lily's chalk inside.

Lily: We found it!

06

Finish the little job

The pink bucket and its chalk were safely back on the porch hook. Lily and Dad used the yellow watering can to give the flowers a drink.

The bucket went back on its porch hook.