

My turn, your turn

Draw yourself, your grown-up, and something you can take turns using. No names are needed.

YOU WILL NEED • A soft toy, two paper turn cards, and a grown-up.

My turn

Your turn

Something we share

Enjoy with a grown-up. There is more than one wonderful way to draw.

TAKING TURNS • PUT THE STORY IN ORDER

First. Next. Last.

Draw each moment. Tell a grown-up how one moment leads to the next.

1. Choose an order

2. Take one turn

3. Pass to a friend

A little moment together.

Pass a soft toy back and forth. Say “my turn” and “your turn.” A short turn makes it easier for everyone to practice waiting.

Draw what you tried

What did you notice? A grown-up can write your words.

Your imagination belongs here.

Two friends want to use the same crayon. Draw a kind way for them to take turns.

Our story begins...

Then something happens...

Our happy ending...
