

Poppy Learns to Wait

A little story to read together

Six illustrated moments, with a gentle discovery along the way. A grown-up can read the words while little readers explore the pictures.

Story adaptation • 4 pages • Free for family, classroom and library use. Not for resale.

POPPY LEARNS TO WAIT

01

Hello, Poppy

Lily and Dad visited Poppy from outside the goat fence. Happy and Dolly stayed beside them.

Lily: Can we ring the little bell?

02

First, Dad's turn

Dad rang the bell gently once. Lily listened as the little sound faded. Poppy watched from inside the fence.

Dad: First my turn, then your turn.

POPPY LEARNS TO WAIT

03

Now Lily's turn

Lily held the bell's cord and gave it one gentle pull. Happy and Dolly listened beside her.

Ding!

04

A little pause

Lily passed the bell back to Dad. She rested her hands and waited beside her friends.

Lily: Your turn, Dad.

POPPY LEARNS TO WAIT

05

Waiting together

Dad took his next turn. Lily watched patiently. Waiting gave everyone room to join in.

Dad: Thank you for waiting.

06

A calm goodbye

Dad put the bell away. Lily waved goodbye to Poppy, while Happy and Dolly waited to walk home.

Lily: See you next time, Poppy!